PART A: SCHOOL INFORMATION

A1. How to Use This Handbook

This handbook provides you with:

- An overview of your programme, its structure and its courses.
- Contact information for key staff in your programme, subject and academic School.
- Details of support and resources available to you as a Heriot-Watt student.

Take time to look through the information provided, but also use it for reference if you are unsure of anything, if you want to contact someone, or if you want to find out more about any aspect of your studies. This Handbook is not just for your first week or two at University, nor is it something to be read once and discarded, you will find it useful to refer back to its contents in the coming weeks and months. If you can't find the information you are looking for then you can ask your personal tutor.

All information is correct at the time the Handbook was produced.

A2. Welcome and Introduction

Welcome from the Principal and Vice Chancellor of Heriot-Watt University

I am delighted that you have chosen our unique and innovative University and have entrusted us with your education for the next few years. Heriot-Watt has been at the forefront of pioneering education and future thinking since 1821, and this year we celebrate the 200th anniversary of our founding in Scotland. Each year, whether it be in league tables or the testimonies of our brilliant students and our supportive staff, we continue to lead the way in world class education.

We understand that these times remain uncertain but let me reassure you that we are here to support you step confidently through your studies using our forward-thinking approach called Responsive Blended Learning (RBL). RBL combines active, supported online learning with contextually appropriate face-to-face learning opportunities, responding dynamically to the changing external context. This way of learning offers you the best of both worlds as it enables you to proceed with your studies alongside your peers, whatever pandemic-related restrictions are lifted or imposed in specific contexts. Now more than ever, we are thankful for our global OneWatt community of students, colleagues and alumni, who continue to actively take part in our supportive network, which spans five campuses in three countries.

Throughout your studies you will have the opportunity to thrive both personally and academically, and I would encourage you to take advantage of all that our campuses, student societies and global community has to offer you. As a University committed to preparing you for your future, we're delighted to offer opportunities for students to gain a global perspective, whether at a single campus or abroad. As travel restrictions are eased, our Go Global programme will continue to offer inter-campus transfers and exchanges across our campuses in Dubai, Scotland and Malaysia, allowing you to study, socialise or experience new cultures and places. We encourage you to connect with likeminded individuals across the globe and grasp every opportunity with both hands.

Our graduates are sought-after by global professions and industries all over the world. The very nature of a Heriot-Watt education is one that allows you to benefit from our research-informed approach, underpinned by our rich heritage and values. We're dedicated to providing you with the confidence and leadership skills to be a global citizen, and the expertise to one day become a leader in your chosen field or career. Together we will help shape tomorrow to deliver benefits for all of society.

We look forward to supporting you as you grow and become a successful graduate of Heriot-Watt University. On behalf of our global OneWatt community, I'd like to take this opportunity to say: welcome to the family.

Professor Richard A. Williams OBE
Principal and Vice-Chancellor

Professor Ammar Kaka

A Vice Principal of Heriot-Watt University and Head of Heriot-Watt University Dubai Campus

Welcome from Head of School

I am delighted to echo my colleagues' welcome to our University and to our Dubai campus. It is also my pleasure to welcome you to the School of Mathematical and Computer Sciences. You are joining a thriving School with a strong tradition of research, scholarship and teaching in Computer Science and Information Technology. You are about to start on a well-established undergraduate programme leading to a highly regarded and internationally recognised qualification. As our student, you will enjoy the professionalism, enthusiasm and friendliness of our Dubai-based staff, confident that you are receiving the same high standards of teaching and assessment as your fellow students in Scotland.

I trust that you will find studying with us both stimulating and rewarding.

Professor Beatrice Pelloni

Head of the School of Mathematical & Computer Sciences

A3. COVID-19 and Responsive Blended Learning

The COVID-19 pandemic means that we have adapted the way we deliver learning and teaching across our campuses to enable us to continue to offer an inspiring learning experience, whatever pandemic-related restrictions may be in place.

Our approach is called Responsive Blended Learning (RBL).

- Responsive to the changing environments our students are living and learning in, to the wellbeing concerns of students and staff, and to the diversity of students' learning needs at this challenging time.
- Blended to combine the very best use of online and on-campus teaching, learning and student support. The exact balance of this blend of online and on-campus learning will flex depending on local conditions and individual student context.

Our Responsive Blended Learning approach means that you will be able to learn, interact and collaborate with your classmates, whether you are on campus or beginning your studies this year online. It will enable you to access materials, collaborate and learn alongside your class cohort, and build and strengthen friendships, wherever you begin your studies from. This means our response will flex with the local conditions, and with your particular circumstances. It will also allow us to safely facilitate the return of students and staff on to our campuses, when conditions allow. You can access RBL student resources here.

As campuses reopen, there will be increasing opportunities for on-campus teaching activities. Labs, studios and maker-spaces will, when safe to do so, be opened to allow students to engage in practical activities. Tutorials and other class teaching will also resume on campus, in line with the safety guidance in your campus context. Whenever you can return, we will be here to welcome you and support you to adjust to campus life.

Details of the specific blend of on campus, online and independent study will be set out by your course teams, who will support you through your studies.

You can discuss any issues around your learning or your wellbeing with your personal tutor (see below) and with the University's professional services (see section B6 below).

A4. Personal Tutors

Every student has a member of academic staff allocated to them as a personal tutor who will be a key source of advice, guidance and support during your time at Heriot-Watt. Your personal tutor is your first point of contact if you need advice on any issue, both academic and non-academic, and can refer you to other support services where relevant for non-academic matters. Personal tutors provide a clear point of contact for you throughout your degree.

While social distancing is in operation, or if you are off campus, you can still arrange to meet your personal tutor remotely and contact them by email.

More details about personal tutoring can be found here.

You can discuss any issues around your learning or your wellbeing with your personal tutor (see below) and with the University's support services (see section B6 below).

A6. PROGRAMME OVERVIEW

Introduction

This handbook contains information on the programme structure, notes, description and the courses offered on the BSc Data Sciences.

Programme Structure

Our academic year is divided into 2 semesters corresponding to 30 weeks. There will be 12 weeks teaching in each semester. You are expected to study 4 courses each semester, giving a total of 8 courses in a full year. Contact hours through lecture, lab and tutorial slots, are only part of your study time for each course. You are expected to spend 10 hours in total per week on each of the 4 courses. Each course is worth 15 credits. Courses may be mandatory or optional.

- Mandatory courses: These courses are compulsory.
- Optional courses: Students are required to choose from a specified list of courses relevant to the subject area of their degree discipline.

All undergraduate courses are designed to be of equal length in terms of student effort. The average student is expected to put in a total effort of 150 hours per course. These 150 hours include all lectures, tutorials, computing labs, workshops, background reading, writing up notes, coursework, revision and examinations for the course.

Timetables

A timetable of classes will be available online here

Consolidation Week

The Consolidation Week is an opportunity to pause within the semester. It will allow both staff and students to reflect on courses, catch-up with outstanding pieces of work and consolidate material that has been covered in the first half of semester to determine aspects of the course that may need to be revisited, re-enforced, etc. There will also be the opportunity for students to engage in additional induction and wellbeing activities, careers sessions, etc.

The following outlines the main expectations for both staff and students:

- The Consolidation Week is not a vacation/break. It is intended to slow the pace, somewhat, and allow reflection and consolidation of learning. Support activities will still take place during this week.
- No new material will to be covered during Consolidation Week.
- There will be no assessment submissions for students during Consolidation Week.

- Schools can continue to actively support student learning activities, for example, laboratory, studio and workshop sessions as this helps to consolidate theoretical learning that has taken place.
- For example, during Consolidation Week, instead of providing activities which staff actively lead, students can be asked to work independently, catch up with coursework/tasks, undertake some revision and reflection activities, and so on.
- Staff are not expected to fill the timetable up with additional activities in Consolidation Week – remember this is meant to be a change of pace at a point in the middle of semester.

Staff/Student Expectations

What you can expect from staff

Teaching is one of the most important duties for staff. Although we have research and admin duties which need our attention too, we promise students:

- Commitment to helping you learn.
- Politeness and respect.
- A regular office hour slot for face to face meetings.
- Written feedback and a mark for coursework within 3 teaching weeks after the hand-in time.
- A reply to general email questions within 5 working days.
- A response from your Personal Tutor within 2 working days.
- If you would like to see your exam script to see where you went wrong, go along to the school office and ask for a form to request this. (It'll take a bit of time to get the paper out of archives). You can also make an appointment with the lecturer to get further advice on how to improve your work.
- Sometimes staff members are away on university business (for example at a research project meeting outside the UK), and won't be able to respond as quickly as normal. If this happens, they will tell you about it (e.g. on an "out of office" message) and will advise you who to contact instead.

What staff can expect from students

Most importantly, we expect you to take charge of your own learning. This is your degree. To get the most of your time at University you need to be independent and proactive. We understand that you have other demands on your time, such as paid employment, but as full-time students, your studies should come first.

- Commitment to your learning.
- Politeness and respect.
- Attendance at classes, unless they are specifically identified as voluntary. During semester it is your responsibility to be available on campus to attend classes and in particular class tests.
- Attention, courtesy and participation during classes.
- Preparation and practice for classes as specified by the lecturers, such as reading or coding. For every hour of timetabled class, we expect you to spend 2-3 hours in private study.
- Practice, practice, practice! In order to become a good programmer, you need to program regularly. If you are having trouble we will help, but the most useful thing you can do for yourself is devote time to programming.
- Basic organisation skills, such as coming to classes with pen and paper ready to take notes, and using a calendar so you don't forget deadlines and documents.
- If you can't make a scheduled meeting with a staff member, please notify them in advance rather than just not turning up.
- Check your email and logging to Vision at least every other day.
- A reply to email from staff within 5 working days (if it requires a reply).
- We expect you to pay attention to the feedback we give you, and to attempt to improve your work based on that feedback.
- We encourage you to keep yourself informed about new and interesting developments in computer science above and beyond what you learn in the taught courses. The department is full of experts in a wide range of areas who would love to chat to keen students about their research. Please seek them out.

- If you have a problem which is interfering with your studying, please discuss it with your Personal Tutor. We are here to help.

<http://www.macs.hw.ac.uk/macshome/StaffStudentExpectationsHWCS.pdf>

Personal Tutor

You will be allocated a Personal Tutor when you arrive at the University and, normally, you will retain the same Personal Tutor as long as you are registered in the Department of Computer Science. The Personal Tutor is your main academic link with the University, and is there to provide you with help and advice about your studies. Under certain circumstances, with the permission of the Head of Computer Science, it may be possible to change your Personal Tutor.

Every year a few students run into personal difficulties (e.g. family illness, accommodation, financial, etc.). As well as being generally supportive, Personal Tutors can help in a number of practical ways. For example, if illness prevents you from completing project work or sitting examinations, your Personal Tutor can sometimes help with re-scheduling or making alternative arrangements for assessment. However, you must notify your Personal Tutor as soon as possible, or there is very little that can be done. This is particularly important if illness affects your Examinations. Also, it is essential to provide a medical certificate (see Notification of Mitigating Circumstances). With other problems, your Personal Tutor can put you in touch with the appropriate University support service (Chaplaincy, Medical Centre, Student Welfare Services or Student Association). Personal Tutors are there to help; do not hesitate to contact yours if you need them.

Our Personal Tutoring team have been selected because they specialise in different areas of expertise. If you have a problem you can go to see your allocated Personal Tutor, or contact one of the others depending on the nature of your difficulty.

Meetings with your Personal Tutor

Your personal tutors will offer a face to face meeting on at least three points during the academic year.

Key contact points for new students (first year and direct entrants)

- Welcome Week: during your induction programme you will find out about the personal tutoring system and have the opportunity to ask any questions.
- End of teaching week 2: you will be invited to a meeting to discuss settling in and check that things are going well.
- Week 8 or 9: you will meet with your personal tutor to discuss end of semester assessments. It is an opportunity for you to discuss any anxieties you have over assessments, seek guidance on revision, and reflect on your learning and the academic skills they need to develop to be successful in your assessments.
- Post-assessment: early in semester 2, you will be invited to a meeting to discuss your semester 1 results. This is an opportunity for you to discuss what has gone well, or not so well, and how the 1st semester experience will help in semester 2 and beyond.

In addition, you may be invited to other meetings throughout the year and should attend. You may request meetings at other times if you need to talk to your personal tutor, you don't have to wait until the scheduled meeting.

Key contact points for continuing students

- By the end of teaching week 5: you will be invited to discuss how you are settling into the new academic year, if any optional courses you have chosen are going well and if there are any points of discussion arising from the previous semester's assessments.

- Semester 2 post assessments: early in semester 2 you will be invited to a meeting to discuss your semester 1 results. This is an opportunity for you to reflect on what has gone well, or not so well, and how your 1st semester experience will help you in semester 2 and beyond.

In addition, you may be invited to other meetings throughout the year and should attend. You may request meetings at other times if you need to talk to your personal tutor, you don't have to wait until the next scheduled meeting.

Staff-Student Liaison

Students are asked to elect a class representative at the start of every academic year. Your representative will keep the staff up to date with any problems which students in the year have identified, and they also keep students informed of actions taken by staff to address these problems.

If you have a request or suggestion about a course, the first thing to do is to talk to the lecturer in question, or ask the class representative to do this for you. If that doesn't work, you can talk to the year supervisor or the Programme Director for your degree.

Enrolment for Courses

You must be enrolled for the courses which you are studying. This will be done initially during online enrolment.

If you wish to change your course, you can do this online after you complete online enrolment up until the end of the second week of the semester. To swap a course you go to the 'Student menu' in self-service and select 'Course Swap'. There is further guidance online as you follow the process.

In 2020/21, learning, teaching and assessment will be delivered through a combination of online and face-to-face methods as part of the University's Responsive Blended Learning Approach. Online activities will be delivered through Vision, the University's VLE. Prompt course registration will ensure that you are able to participate in all online activities.

Any subsequent changes to optional choices must be agreed between you and your Programme Director or Personal Tutor, and then recorded on a Change of Course Form found here. The form must then be returned to the School Office for processing.

All course changes must be made by the end of week 2 of each semester.

Course Requirements

Attendance

In order to achieve course and programme learning outcomes, students are expected to attend all scheduled course learning sessions (e.g. timetabled lectures, tutorials, lab sessions, etc). Should you have missed a timetabled session due to ill health or other legitimate reasons, you should submit a self-certification or medical certification or an application for consideration of Mitigating Circumstances

Students who fail to satisfy course attendance requirements may, after due warning, be disallowed from presenting themselves for examination in the course (see <http://www.hw.ac.uk/students/doc/withdrawalprocedures.pdf>).

Plagiarism & Cheating

Cheating in examination and plagiarism, which is, the presentation of another person's ideas or work as one's own, are very serious offences and are dealt with severely. They carry a range of penalties up to and including expulsion from the University. The University guidelines on plagiarism can be found here

Submission of Coursework

All courses will include some coursework which must be done during the semester. The submission of this coursework will most likely be in digital form, but in some rare cases it can be in physical form. Most coursework will need to be submitted using Vision or using GitLab. Please follow the instructions provided for each course

All coursework must be submitted by 3.30pm on the deadline date unless otherwise specified by the lecturer. A list of coursework deadlines will normally appear on the undergraduate student website from the start of the semester, which will also detail the amount of effort that is expected for each piece of coursework. Penalties may be imposed for late submission of coursework.

Submission of Coursework Policy

The University recognises that, on occasion, students may be unable to submit coursework and dissertations by the submission date. As such, the University has agreed a new policy from 2018/19 which states:

- No individual extensions are permitted under any circumstances (unless course coordinators decide to give an extension to an entire class in exceptional circumstances).
- Standard 30% deduction from the mark awarded (maximum of five working days).
- In the case where you submit coursework up to five working days late and you have valid mitigating circumstances, the mitigating circumstances policy will apply and appropriate mitigation will be applied.
- Formative feedback will be provided on all coursework submitted up to five working days late. Any coursework submitted after five working days of the set submission date shall be automatically awarded a no grade with no formative feedback provided.

The policy can be found here.

Examinations

It is the student's responsibility to check the relevant examination timetables (including resits) on the Registry web page. Some examinations are run as electronic exams, in particular in Years 1 and 2. Details on how these electronic exams are run will be announced in the course.

Should you be required to be re-assessed in any examinations, you must make yourself available to take them.

Past exam papers for courses can be found at their corresponding Vision course pages.

Grades & Assessments

Grades for each course are awarded as follows:

Grade	Overall Range	Description	Notes
A	70% or more	Excellent
B	60% to 69%	Very Good
C	50% to 59%	Good
D	40% to 49%	Satisfactory
E	30% to 39%	Adequate	Minimum required for the award of credits, but at least a grade D is needed for progression to subsequent courses.
F	Below 30%	Inadequate	Fail

Feedback

Feedback is a two-way process. Feedback is provided to students in a variety of ways in order to help you to reflect on and to evaluate your progress and to assist you to take steps to improve before the next relevant assessment. For most courses, students can expect feedback on assessed coursework within three teaching weeks of the coursework due date.

Feedback is sought from students via Student-Staff Liaison Committees and various surveys so that the School can continue to enhance the student learning experience. Your feedback is valued by the School, so please be sure to provide feedback whenever it is sought.

Assessment Results and Progress Decisions

The University operates the Heriot-Watt Assessment and Progression System (HAPS) which specifies minimum progression requirements. Schools have the option to apply progression requirements above the minimum University requirement, which are approved by the Studies Committees. Students should refer to the programme specific information on progression requirements. This information is detailed later in this handbook. You can also contact your Personal Tutor for information.

You will get your assessment results online following the relevant Assessment Boards which take place in January, May and August (resit diet).

The Progression Board meets at the end of the academic year to decide which students will be allowed to proceed to the next year of their degree programme. You will receive an email from the University containing a link to a summary of your results for the year and the Board's progression decision whether you must resit any courses.

In years 1, 2 and 3 if you do not pass a course at the first attempt, you have one opportunity to resit the course during the resit diet in early August. In Year 3, re-assessment is for credit only and you cannot improve your overall average (which accounts for 20% of your final degree results) unless you are re-sitting for mitigating circumstances. There are no re-sit opportunities for courses in Year 4.

If you receive a pass/proceed decision that allows you to progress at the Summer Progression Board you can enrol online from mid-August. If you have resits, and are able to progress following the Resit Progression Board you may enrol online once you have received your Assessment Results email confirming this.

Final Degree Assessment

The Award Board meets in the last week of May to consider the assessment marks and make recommendations on degree classifications.

For the BSc Computer Science and Computer Systems honours degree, the Examiners take into account 3rd and 4th year course marks in deciding the class of Honours. The final mark is the average of those marks, weighted as:

- 20% from 3rd year average (at first attempt),
- 50% from the 5 taught courses in 4th year, and
- 30% from the individual dissertation in 4th year.

In broad terms, an average mark of over 70% for first class honours, 60% - 70% for upper second-class honours, 50% - 60% for lower second-class honours, and 40% - 50% for third class honours, would be required, subject to the agreement of the Examiners. (Note that 480 credits are required for the award of an honours degree.).

Graduation

When you have completed your degree your award is conferred at a graduation ceremony. Details on graduation, including how to apply, deadlines for applying and the cost, can be found here. This website also includes details of gown hire and guest tickets.

Notification of Mitigating Circumstances (MC)

If you have been affected by mitigating circumstances which have affected your ability to complete your assessments you must notify us as soon as possible.

You should read the University's Policy on Mitigating Circumstances in Relation to Assessment. Further details can be found here

It is very important that you also notify your Personal Tutor as soon as possible of any mitigating circumstances, such as illness or bereavement, which could adversely affect your assessment performance. In the case of illness, a medical certificate must be supplied to the School Office. The Examiners will always take such circumstances into account where appropriate, but the later the notification, the less scope there is to do so.

In particular, notification should be before the results are announced. Late notification will mean that either no account can be taken, or that formal procedures have to be invoked. In the latter case, final year students will not be permitted to graduate until these procedures have been completed. For further details, see the University Regulations.

Heriot-Watt University reserves the right to update materials from time to time and will ensure that advance notification concerning changes to materials is provided to students on the relevant section of the University website. It is the responsibility of students to check the website, particularly if they are returning to studies after a period during which their studies have been suspended.

Academic Appeals

An academic appeal is a formal request by a student for the review of a decision made by the University on the student's progression, assessment or academic award. There are valid and invalid grounds for an appeal. Appeals cannot be made on the basis of academic judgment (for example, thinking that your work deserves a higher grade). You are strongly advised to seek advice before starting an appeal, and to try and seek an informal resolution before making a formal appeal

Assessment

Assessment is an essential part of learning at university. Make sure you are aware of the guidelines and regulations around University assessment.

Assessment Feedback

Heriot-Watt University aims to support students in becoming confident, independent learners; feedback is a key part of the student learning experience, as it is designed to help students to learn and improve. It's also important to know what to do with the feedback when you receive it. Please also see this guide: Making the Most of Assessment and Feedback: A Guide for Students

Assessment Results

Once your course results have been released, you will automatically be sent an email (to your Heriot-Watt email address) to inform you that new assessment results are available online to view/download via the Student Self-Service. Guidance is available on the results and the grading system used by the University.

Changing Your Course

If you wish to change your course you can do this online after you complete online enrolment up until the end of the second week of the semester. To swap a course you go to the 'Student menu' in self-service and select 'Course Swap'. There is further guidance online as you follow the process.

Learning, teaching and assessment will be delivered through a combination of online and face-to-face methods as part of the University's Responsive Blended Learning Approach. Online activities will be delivered through Canvas, the University's VLE. Prompt course registration will ensure that you are able to participate in all online activities.

Changing Your Programme

The University recognises that students may wish to transfer to a different programme of study and will normally allow this provided that a student's prior study or subject knowledge meets the entry requirements of the new programme. Transferring after year 1 may be difficult without repeating stages of study. If you are considering changing to another Heriot-Watt programme please make sure you discuss this with your personal tutor and see the following advice.

- Think carefully about what you want to study instead
- Access all sources of information about any alternative programme. Find out who the programme contact is, what the entry requirements are and what careers it might lead to. You can find out the programme contact by contacting the School Office. Find out if you would you have to repeat a year.
- Talk to programme staff and students who are currently studying the programme.
- Remember, it is not automatic that you will be allowed to transfer to a different programme.
- If you are able to transfer, make sure you complete the correct forms and have the appropriate approval. Your new programme leader can advise you on this.

- You may have to repeat a year on your new programme, e.g. start again at Year 1, in which case you should check with your funding body what financial support will be available if you do this. Repeat funding can sometimes be offered but this will depend on your circumstances.
